FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

• Q. How much money can I make through each endeavor?
  A. Physician expert witnesses: Board Certified actively practicing physicians typically earn $500 or more per hour. At 4 hours per week this is six figures.

Disability and file review consultants: $100–$250 or more per hour with potential through volume for six figures without ever having to testify.

Consultants: Varies widely depending on your niche, but a good ballpark range is $300–$600 per hour with a potential for high volume.

Physician Life Care Planners: Typical fees are $300–$500 or more per hour. These are typically time consuming assignments which can routinely result in five figure fees.

Writing: Traditional and Self-Publishing varies widely from a nominal amount to seven figures. We will also teach you how your writing can lead to extremely lucrative teaching and consulting assignments. Freelance $100+ per hour for fun and fulfilling work with potential through volume for six figures with zero travel and very little stress.

• Q. What are the liability risks and start-up costs?
  A. Both are typically very limited.

• Q. How long after the courses will I be able to get started?
  A. You will have the tools and knowledge to get started immediately.

• Q. Which of the two expert witness courses should I take?
  A. Preferably both as they cover different material and complement each other. If you are new and can only take one course we highly recommend you take How to Start, Build, and Run a Successful Medical Expert Witness Practice.

• Q. I am not currently practicing or am not board certified, what is most appropriate for me?
  A. Consulting, writing, and life care planning, as an active clinical practice/boards are typically not required. For consulting and writing a license may not even be required.

• Q. Who can I talk to if I have additional questions?
  A. Please contact SEAK’s President, Steven Babitsky at 508-548-9443 or stevenbabitsky@seak.com.
Executive Summary: Life care planning is a highly lucrative endeavor which can supplement or replace your clinical income. Life care planning can be performed by physicians, nurses, psychologists and other healthcare professionals. More and more, however, life care planning is being performed by physicians who are often preferred by attorneys. Serving as a physician life care planner typically consists of assisting plaintiff or defense lawyers by documenting the needs of an injured person and opining on the costs required to meet these needs over the course of the injured litigant’s lifetime. Physician life care planning assignments are labor intensive and often result in total fees billed at $300-$600 or more per hour. Best of all, physician life care planning does not require an active clinical practice, is not limited by specialty, does not involve testifying against other physicians on the issue of standard of care, and most work can be done from a home office. Attendees should be able to start serving as a life care planner after completion of this course. This unique course will not be offered again in 2020.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Explain the methodology to employ and develop an accurate, defensible life care plan
- Describe how to assemble and review the medical and other records you will need to review
- List best practices for conducting the life care plan interview and examination
- Determine the functional ability and impairments of the injured person
- Determine future medical needs of the injured person
- Describe best practices for assessing and researching the cost of the examinee’s needs
- Draft a powerful, persuasive, and defensible life care plan
- Defend your life care plan at deposition and trial
- Avoid common pitfalls
- Describe numerous techniques to market your life care planning practice to attorneys and others
- Acquire the skills to start serving as a physician life care planner

How to Earn Money as a Physician Writer
The Sandpearl Resort, Clearwater Beach, Florida
Thursday–Friday, February 6–7, 2020

Executive Summary:
Writing is an enjoyable and low stress way for physicians to supplement their income. Writing can be done from home at hours of your own choosing, does not require Boards or an active practice (or even an active license), and what you learn while writing often makes you a better clinician. In this unique, two-day seminar, SEAK will orient you to five different avenues to making money from being a physician writer: Teaching/Consulting, Self-Publishing, Traditional Publishing (Advances and Royalties), Article Writing, and Freelance Technical Writing. All attendees will leave with an action plan on how they can start earning money as a physician writer. This course will only be offered once in 2020.

WHAT YOU WILL ACCOMPLISH BY ATTENDING:
• Understand five viable avenues for supplementing or replacing your income through writing: Teaching/Consulting, Self-Publishing, Traditional Publishing (Advances and Royalties), Article Writing, and Freelance Technical Writing.
• Get feedback from experts on your potential writing ideas
• Avoid common pitfalls and jumpstart your writing career
• Learn proven techniques for promoting yourself and your writing
• Appreciate what sells, what doesn’t sell and why this occurs
• Learn how to get paid the maximum amount for your writing
• Develop a personalized action plan to get started

“Extremely useful, cram packed of useful knowledge, glad to have the manual to supplement info gathered during lectures.”

“Very helpful and inspiring—both to continue working on my novel and to begin some freelance article writing.”

“An amazing workshop!!”

“Packed with relevant information! Can’t think of anything I won’t use in some way.”

“Thanks Sorche for reviewing queries”

“Thank you for speaking personally to the participants.”

How to Earn Money as a Physician Writer
The Sandpearl Resort, Clearwater Beach, Florida
Day One (Thursday, February 6, 2020)

7:30 – 8:00 CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST & REGISTRATION

8:00 – 8:30 Introduction
The faculty and attendees will introduce themselves and the faculty will explain why GOOD THINGS HAPPEN TO DOCTORS WHO WRITE.

8:30 – 9:30 Leveraging Your Writing to Build or Expand a Consulting/Teaching Practice and/or Your Clinical Practice
The largest financial return on your writing is often not in the sales of the writing itself. The biggest financial upside often comes from the ancillary income possible from teaching, consulting or your clinical practice resulting from your having “wrote the book on a topic.” The faculty will explain how to use your writing to increase clinical income and/or support lucrative teaching and consulting practices. Several detailed case examples will be presented and discussed. Questions and Answers

9:30 – 10:00 The Publishing Landscape and Why Self-Publishing May Now Be Your Smartest Option
Self-publishing had traditionally been a poor option for authors who were looking to make money from their books, with many readers looking down on “vanity presses” and self-published books. Those days are now long gone. The internet, print on demand, modern computers and graphic design software, the demise of many brick and mortar bookstores and the explosion of e-books have made self-publishing in many cases your best bet to maximize earnings from writing a book on a non-commercial topic. In this segment the faculty will explain the advantages and disadvantages of self-publishing and provide a methodology for determining if self-publishing is your best bet. Questions and Answers

10:00 – 10:15 BREAK AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY

10:15 – 10:45 The Nuts and Bolts of Self-Publishing: Printing and How to Make Your Book Look Professional
The faculty will explain the advantages and disadvantages of three major options for producing your book – bulk printing, print on demand, and e-books. The advantages and disadvantages of each will be explained. The authors will also provide practical suggestions for finding the best vendor for assisting with printing and negotiating the best price. Also provided will be suggestions for getting the proper assistance for producing a book that reads well and looks professionally laid out. Different options for performing this work will be explored. Questions and Answers

10:45 – 11:30 Promoting Yourself and Your Book
If you want your self-published or traditionally published book to sell, you need to be able to promote it. In this segment the faculty will explain numerous strategies for selling your book including, distributors, publicity, generating positive word of mouth, pricing, building buzz, teaching, direct marketing, blogging, speaking, giving interviews, networking, choosing the correct title, and search engine optimization. The faculty will lead an interactive exercise in which attendees are asked to create and discuss marketing plans for their books. Questions and Answers

11:30 – 12:00 How to Self-Evaluate Your Book Idea
Writing and publishing your book are ambitious undertakings. Before doing so, it is a best practice to take a hard look at what you are proposing. In this segment the faculty will provide a step-by-step protocol for critically evaluating your book idea including: feasibility of marketing, competition, delivering exceptional quality, pricing power, availability of distributors, follow-on revenue, and printing costs. Questions and Answers

12:00 – 12:45 LUNCH PROVIDED WITH FACULTY

12:45 – 2:00 What Publishers are Looking for — Book Ideas that Sell
Physicians commonly publish both non-fiction and fiction. The faculty will provide an overview and insights for what sells for each of the numerous popular types of fiction and non-fiction works including: trade, textbooks, self-help, thrillers, romance, sci-fi, and children’s. The faculty will explain what sells in various genres, and what does not. The faculty will explain what now drives the publishing industry and what publishers are most interested in. The faculty will provide numerous examples of works of fiction and non-fiction authored by physicians and of successful physician authors. Questions and Answers

2:00 – 3:00 How to Find the Right Agent
Success with traditional publishers is often heavily dependent on finding the right agent. In the segment the faculty will explain what a good agent does and does not do. Faculty will provide a step-by-step process that helps research, query, and land a motivated agent. Finally, the faculty will give practical tips for how to be a good client and get the most out of your agent. Questions and Answers

3:00 – 3:15 BREAK AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY (WITH THE FACULTY)

3:15 – 5:00 How to Draft a Killer Query Letter and Create and Deliver an Irresistible Pitch
The faculty will explain how to write an irresistible query letter. Sample query letters will be provided. The faculty will then conduct a group exercise where attendees will be asked to pitch their books in less than sixty seconds. Questions and Answers

11:00 – 12:00 Freelance Technical Writing — Opportunities Available
The faculty will provide an overview of the many varied types of technical writing that physicians are called upon to perform including: abstracts, posters, marketing materials, editing, CME material, training material, presentations/slides, proposals, regulatory documents, scripts, web content, news articles, materials for the pharmaceutical industry, and white papers and how these relate to the Pharmaceutical and Medical Communications industries. For each of these areas the faculty will explain what the work consists of, why it is needed and who within each industry would typically hire the physician to perform the work. Questions and Answers

12:00 – 12:45 LUNCH PROVIDED WITH FACULTY

12:45 – 1:45 The Business of Freelance Technical Writing — Landing Your First Clients, Negotiating Your Rates, Collecting Fees, and Marketing Your Services
The faculty will provide advice for how to break into this field. The faculty will also explain how to set and negotiate your rates, how and when to collect your fees, how to leverage your clinical skills and experience, how to earn repeat and word of mouth business, how to make yourself more attractive to potential services and how to market your services to both new and existing clients. Questions and Answers

1:45 – 2:30 Conclusion — Your Action Plan to Start Earning Money as a Physician Writer
By far, the biggest impediment to making money as a physician writer is inertia. In this section, each attendee will draft a concise action plan to follow to get started as physician writers. Attendees will be invited to share their plans with the faculty and their colleagues for feedback. Questions and Answers

“Excellent, definitely met expectations and lit a fire.”

“Fantastic setting and very informative.”

“On point, exactly what I came to hear about.”

“Full of helpful and insightful information.”

“The highlight for me was that Sorche sat with me at lunch the first day and talked to me one on one about my [book idea] — I didn’t know in advance that she’d have and give me that much individual time.”

“Jim, Thank you for a most excellent program. I always knew anything produced by SEAK is a quality product. I am ready to hone my writing and look to a first book completion.”

“Hello! I just wanted to write to personally thank all three of you for the outstanding SEAK Writing Course in Clearwater! I cannot believe I learned so much in such a short time! Thank you again for all of your help!”

“I am inspired. Your SEAK conference has lit a fire in me and for that, I’m saying THANKS! Thanks for the how-to.”

“Thanks, Jimmy! What a wonderful course. It was exactly what I needed. I wrote all the character studies and most of the first chapter of my novel on the plane ride home to San Francisco. I loved your motivating, can-do attitude. And Sorche is a gem: a gifted speaker, smart, relatable, tough and motivating.”

“Jim, The SEAK writing course was excellent, exactly what I needed. Many thanks to you, Sorche, and Mandy for an outstanding seminar.”

How to Start, Build, and Run a Successful Medical Expert Witness Practice

The Sandpearl Resort, Clearwater Beach, Florida
Day One (Thursday, February 6, 2020)

7:30 – 8:00 REGISTRATION AND CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

8:00 – 8:30 The Role of Expert Witnesses in Civil Litigation
Attendees will learn the proper role of expert witnesses in civil litigation. Included is an explanation of Federal Rule of Evidence 702 and the types of specific assignments experts can expect from retaining counsel including forensic consulting, report writing, and where necessary, testifying at deposition or trial. Questions and Answers.

8:30 – 9:30 What Successful Expert Witnesses Have in Common
Faculty and the attendees will analyze what some of the nation’s “go to” experts have in common and how they got to their position of prominence. Videotaped interviews of the experts will be reviewed. Lessons for the attendees will be drawn from these examples. Questions and Answers.

Faculty will explain the advantages of identifying a niche for yourself. Attendees will be provided with a protocol for researching their niche, determining the proper fit and developing their niche to its fullest potential. Questions and Answers.

10:30 – 10:45 BREAK AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY

10:45 – 12:00 Pulling Together a CV Appropriate for Expert Witness Work
Anyone considering starting an expert witness practice needs to maintain a CV. Attendees will learn the importance of an accurate, up-to-date CV, what should and should not be on a CV, and how mistakes in preparing CVs can damage or destroy an expert's credibility. Sample CVs will be provided. Questions and Answers.

12:00 – 12:45 LUNCH PROVIDED WITH FACULTY

12:45 – 1:45 Bulletproofing Yourself – Your Qualifications, Marketing Activities, Web Site, Image & Reputation
A mock trial demonstration followed by bottom line bullet point advice with numerous examples on how to avoid potentially devastating problems in an expert's qualifications, marketing activities, web site, image and reputation. Questions and Answers.

1:45 – 2:15 Bulletproofing Your Opinions – Passing the Daubert Tests, Your Methodology
An in-depth discussion of the legal requirements of Daubert and FRE 702 as they relate to how an expert forms and expresses his/her opinion(s) and the admissibility of the opinions. Numerous examples will be discussed. The lecture continues with practical advice on how to avoid being caught in a Daubert nightmare and how to use the Daubert criteria as a roadmap to bolster the persuasiveness of any opinion. Questions and Answers.

2:15 – 3:00 Bulletproofing Your Opinions – Research, Investigation, Chart Review and Examination
An expert witness's opinion will only be as strong as the facts, research and investigation upon which it is based. Attendees will learn how to conduct an investigation, perform research and collect data in a manner that bolsters an expert's opinion. Questions and Answers.

3:00 – 3:15 BREAK AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY

3:15 – 3:45 Bulletproofing Your Opinions – Managing the Potentially Damaging Influence of Retaining Counsel
Expert Witnesses often severely damage or destroy the persuasiveness of their opinions by allowing retaining counsel to influence (or appear to influence) their investigation, assumptions, and opinions. In this segment attendees will learn how to insulate their opinions from the appearance of being under the influence of retaining counsel, for example through the information the expert witness relies upon, the modification of draft and preliminary opinions, and through the communications between the expert witness and retaining counsel. Questions and Answers.

3:45 – 4:00 Bulletproofing Your Opinions – Rebuttals and Commenting On Other Experts
Commenting on another expert's opinions is an area that gets many experts into unnecessary difficulty. In this segment experts will learn the right way and wrong way to comment on another expert's opinions. Questions and Answers.

4:00 – 5:00 Best Practices in Forensic Office Management
Attendees will learn a myriad of techniques that will help them run an efficient and successful litigation support consulting practice. These include optimum new case intake procedures, billing systems, document receipt and retention policies, support staff training and instruction, file maintenance, trial scheduling, procedures for keeping your CV up-to-date, how to account for all time spent on the case, responsibilities and boundaries, security and confidentiality protocols and developing and using forms, templates and checklists. Questions and Answers.

“I have taken a lot of training classes over the years, this was the only one where I was completely engaged over two days. In addition to your hand outs, I left with 10 pages of notes. Can’t wait for additional classes!”

“The best meeting I’ve attended in several years.”

“Awesome course! I will keep in touch and look forward to another course.”

“Very knowledgeable and engaging [faculty]. Impressed with Nadine’s preparation (reviewing participates materials) and interactive audience approach. Wonderful job fielding questions from the audience.”

“Excellent presentation, very approachable & willing to support students.”

Executive Summary: The #1 way to grow an expert witness practice is to build the reputation of being an effective witness. This is a small group, hands-on, fast-moving interactive workshop covering deposition, direct examination, and cross-examination skills for physicians. Participating physicians will learn how to become markedly more effective and significantly more valuable expert witnesses. Instruction will utilize four methods: lecture, questions & answers, videos of experts actually testifying in real cases, and mock trial demonstrations using student volunteers. The mock trial demonstrations are based upon a C.V. and sample report submitted in advance by each attendee. Each physician will have an opportunity to participate in demonstrations and to receive constructive feedback as to how to improve their performance. In addition, each attendee will be provided with a content rich seminar manual. This course, which is especially for physicians, will only be offered once in 2020.

Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of this workshop, physicians should be able to:

• Discuss the strategies and goals of opposing counsel at deposition and during cross-examination
• Describe how to properly prepare for deposition and trial
• Explain opposing counsel's deposition and cross examination tactics and how to defeat each tactic
• Describe techniques physicians can use when testifying at deposition and trial
• Discuss methods for responding to trick and difficult questions at deposition and trial
• List techniques for developing powerful, memorable language and analogies
• Describe how to best insulate yourself from attacks by opposing counsel
• Discuss techniques to make a positive impression on the jury

How to Start, Build, and Run a Successful Consulting Practice
The Sandpearl Resort, Clearwater Beach, Florida Saturday–Sunday, February 8–9, 2020

Executive Summary: A proven way to either supplement or replace your income or transition out of a clinical career is to serve as a consultant. Consulting can be highly lucrative, most of the work can usually be done from a home office and overhead, start-up costs and risks are relatively small. Boards and an active clinical practice or even an active license are typically not required. This hands-on intensive workshop will show physicians how to start, build, and run a high paying consulting practice. Attendees will be guided to find their best consulting niches and be provided with strategies for getting started, building, marketing and expanding their new consulting practice. Emphasis will be placed on the practical needs of the physician and his or her consulting practice. Physicians will be provided the tools, forms, and checklists to get their consulting practice off the ground. This course is only offered once per year.

AT THE CONCLUSION OF THIS TWO DAY SEMINAR PHYSICIANS SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

• Identify a lucrative niche to offer consulting services in
• Develop an action plan for landing their first few clients
• Discuss methods to make sure you are fully and fairly compensated for your expertise
• Identify and capitalize on emerging consulting opportunities
• Negotiate a premium consulting fee

“The course was just absolutely spectacular. I am still stunned by the incredibly positive nature of the experience.”

“Dear Steve and Julia, Yours was definitely the best conference I have ever attended. It’s the first time I sat through a conference that was actually ALL ABOUT ME! Thank you for an incredibly productive weekend.”

“Awesome. A lot of information to go home and digest.”

“Excellent. provided all the tools.”

“Incredible. I really appreciate how you used every single second and packed it full of information.”

“Inspiring.”

“This has given me more information in 1 day about how to build my consulting business than the many hours I have spent talking and networking with colleagues for the past year.”

“Excellent job – stories and examples great – Julia’s practical info very valuable.”

“Excellent job! Thank you for this life-changing experience.”

How to Start, Build, and Run a Successful IME Practice; 7-DVD SET

This is SEAK’s highly acclaimed training seminar on IMEs. Performing Independent Medical Examinations (IMEs) is a great way to both earn additional income and diversify your practice. The earning potential is enormous. Exam fees average $800–$1,500 and are often much higher than this. Physicians routinely do multiple exams in one day. IMEs can be done on your schedule, with minimal additional overhead, no call, and without disrupting your current practice. Start and run an efficient and profitable IME practice with built in sustainability and produce very high quality IMEs. $895

“It was fantastic and I will refer my colleagues. Both you and Tony have tremendous talent and expertise. Thank you for sharing it with us.”

“Great way to start an IME practice.”

Medical Malpractice Survival Training for Physicians; 5-DVD SET

Malpractice Survival Training for Physicians is essential training for any physician who is currently being sued or is at risk for being sued over the course of his or her career. We teach you how to give yourself the best chance of successfully defending an accusation of medical malpractice. We further show you how to be a more effective witness in your own defense. In addition, we teach you what you can and should do to assist in your own defense including making sure the insurance company hires the right lawyer, assisting in case preparation and expert selection, and making a favorable impression upon the jury. We also flag common and avoidable mistakes that can destroy an otherwise defensible case. Includes 158 page printed manual. $895.

“Great educational experience-exactly what I was looking for.”

“Excellent. Best presenter I have seen for many years.”
